

Manifesting Your Desires

Friday, October 23, 3 pm – Sunday, October 25th, 3 pm, 2020

LOMC, 1834 Illinois Route #2 South, Oregon, Illinois

How do we manifest our desires? What gets in the way of those things coming into fruition and how can we clear them?

On this retreat weekend we delve into the root of what blocks us from our truest desires for our highest good. We will be working with fire ceremonies, guided meditation trance dance, chakras, yoga, and energy cords. We will achieve seeing our best selves by honoring, loving, and nurturing ourselves. By doing that, we can then reclaim those things that we feel we do not deserve.

Break the pattern of fear and connect to your highest good.

The cost of $547 includes lodging, food and the workshop. A $150, non-refundable deposit is required to guarantee your spot.
